Accommodation

Dar Es Salaam Serena Hotel

It's time to begin your safari. Welcome to Tanzania! After we greet you and provide you with the trip briefing, we'll take you out to help you discover why so many people think Tanzania is the best place in Africa to go on safari.

Immerse yourself in Tanzania's largest city and commercial capital. Dar es Salaam is a mix of traffic jams and busy markets, and yet a surprisingly relaxed city. You can enjoy quality restaurants and informative museums, and good beaches are not far away. Above all, you'll enjoy its melting pot of cultures from across the Indian Ocean and beyond.

Ruaha National Park

Accommodation

Laba Jongomero Camp

Inside

Ruaha National Park

Here at Ruaha you'll probably see three of the Big Five – big lion prides and even bigger herds of elephant and buffalo. Leopards are also a possibility. Giraffe, hippo and zebra are commonly found here, and more than 450 different bird species have been seen. Very few visitors make it here compared to other Tanzanian parks, so you'll likely enjoy a strong wilderness feeling as a result. Just after sunrise and in the hour before sunset, the grasslands of Ruaha turn to gold and all the animals come out into the open. These are the times visitors most enjoy being here.

Nyerere National Park

Accommodation

Siwandu Camp

Inside

Nyerere National Park

Get to know one of Tanzania's most important national parks. Here you'll find lions – Nyerere National Park has one of Africa's biggest lion populations – elephants, crocodiles, zebras and lots of other safari animals present in large numbers. Hippos, giraffes, wildebeest and buffalo are also seen. And you might see leopards and African wild dogs if you're really lucky. Admire also the rugged landscape of rocky hills and lakes and the wide Rufiji River, all fringed with palm trees. Despite the Selous being one of the largest protected areas in East Africa, the area open for visitors is relatively small so you will enjoy a concentrated safari experience.

Lined up along the lakeshore in Nyerere National Park, Siwandu Camp combines a fantastic position with high levels of luxury. The lake draws lots of wildlife, and you sometimes don't even need to leave camp to see the animals. You can watch it all unfold from the open-sided restaurant, and the luxury safari tents also face the water.
